

Bowls Clothing

GENERAL

- Fenstanton Bowls Club colours are white with blue sleeves and a red collar worn with grey trousers/shorts/cropped trousers.
- Club shirts can be purchased from Linda Brodie.
- You can also wear white waterproofs, jumpers, cardigans and hats.
- Some bowlers wear a glove on their bowling hand. Often these are golf gloves.
- Shoes should be flat soled (no heel) and can be of any colour.

SOCIAL BOWLS

- Shoes should be flat soled (no heel) and can be of any colour.
- Casual attire may be worn.

LEAGUE MATCHES

- If you are selected to play for the Club in any league there are some clothing rules which should be followed.

League	Clothes
Cambridge and District Bowls league - C&D	Flat regulation shoes or slippers, white tops or official club colours, grey bowls trousers, grey bowls skirts, grey bowls cropped trousers, grey bowls tailored shorts or Bowls England approved grey shorts in all league and competition matches.
Millicent Childs - over 60's	Dress code will be as stipulated by your club's rules.
Huntingdon & District bowls league- Mens	Players must wear a club top, or white top if awaiting a club top. Other dress should be as per the club's dress code.
Ladies league	Club shirts; grey trousers, shorts, cropped trousers or skirts supplied by an approved bowls manufacturer; any colour of bowling shoes. For the ladies league the Bowls England logo is not allowed.

Ideally all clothing, apart from Club shirts, should be from an approved bowls manufacturer, such as Taylors, Drakes Pride, Henselite and Aero.
